

Is this a fit for a referral?

Keep this at your desk. If a case matches any section below, it's worth a call.

The Pinch Hit

- ☐ You can't get past one issue, and it's holding up the whole case.
- ☐ That issue is threatening to derail the case or escalate into high-conflict interactions.
- ☐ The issue is emotional or relational, not primarily financial.
- ☐ You need it resolved without reopening the rest of the file.

The Family Fit

- ☐ There's no workable parenting plan yet, or the one in place isn't holding.
- ☐ Conflict is high enough that a generic schedule template won't survive contact with this family.
- ☐ The whole plan needs building or rebuilding — not just one issue resolved.

Parenting Coordination

- ☐ There's already an order or agreement in place, but the same disputes keep resurfacing.
- ☐ Someone with standing needs to be available to resolve issues as they come up, rather than sending the family back to court each time.
